

GOODWIN REPLIES TO GOODWIN

Republican Nominee Answers an Invitation to Join in Raising Probing Inquiry

ALLEGED ELECTION BRIBERY STORY

Democratic Nominee Accused of Stopping to Besmirch the Reputation of His Political Opponents—Stated as a Fact What He Could Not Prove, and Did Not Know, for Selfish Political Advancement.

Middletown, Conn., Nov. 4.—Charles A. Goodwin, the republican nominee for governor, tonight replied to an invitation to join in raising a probing inquiry into alleged election bribery.

No Evidence to Back Up His Statement.

Mr. Goodwin spoke as follows: Judge Baldwin, speaking in this city on Wednesday night, invited me to join him in raising a court of inquiry to probe his assertions of corruption in our party. Before considering that matter let me ask what has become of my invitation to him to produce the evidence upon which he based his charge of corruption in our party. At that time he stated as a fact that bribery and corruption were rampant in our party. He attempted to back up his statement by making a charge which created a profound impression because of his reputation as a lawyer and a statesman. He earnestly requested him to present that evidence to the proper prosecuting officers.

Baldwin's Duty if He Had Such Evidence.

In fact, if he had been in possession of such evidence, his duty as a citizen would have been to bring it to action without waiting for the request or suggestion of anybody. He has not done so. He has not even attempted to produce the evidence which he stated as a fact. He cannot now complain, after this delay, if I accuse him, as I do, of stopping to besmirch the reputation of his political opponents by stating a fact which he could not prove, and did not know, for the selfish purpose of political advancement.

Not Sincere in His Proposal.

He now proposes that I help him create a court of inquiry which shall try to discover the evidence of corruption which he has pretended he had. A pretense which he now tacitly admits he has not. He would have me join him in a charge which he has not proved. He would have me join him in a charge which he has not proved. He would have me join him in a charge which he has not proved.
